Meet Your Healer and Coach

Katrina Rynkiewicz

Reiki Master, Multidimensional
Quantum Healer, Access Bars
Practitioner, Intuitive Coach and Psychic Medium

Just like most people out there I have suffered life traumas. It hasn't always been easy. Some days I didn't want to get out of bed. Some days I just wanted to give up. But I am so happy that I didn't give up even though it was so hard. In the last 20 years I have been healing my own life traumas, so I could live my BEST life possible. In the last 7 years I have become a Reiki Master, Access Bars Practitioner and Multidimensional Quantum Healer and an Intuitive Coach so I could HELP others live their Best life possible.

“The only way I can explain a session with Katrina would be “incredible”. My two teenagers have had healing sessions with Katrina. Before beginning Katrina discussed with my kids everything that she would be doing and they felt instantly comfortable with her due to Katrina’s beautiful and caring nature. Katrina is a true professional in what she does, including in maintaining confidentiality between herself and those who attend her sessions. The change my teenagers have felt within themselves and that I too have noticed in them is simply amazing. I highly recommend Katrina to anyone and everyone”

About the Program...

Week 1

Healing your past

If you are carrying things from your past you cannot move forward. I will go down your timeline from birth till now and be able to pick up on specific ages that trauma has affected you and that you are still carrying within you. I will be able to send healing to that specific age so it can be healed. I will also dissolve any contracts from the past, past lives.

Week 2

Healing your body.

I will talk to your body to see what issues, diseases and illnesses it has. Getting to the core of the problems. Every issue in the body stems from emotional blockage. Work on the blockage, release the blockage and put healing into it. I will be able to work on the 7 layers of the body and release and heal the Emotion that are out of balance or that are broken or depleted.

“ Thanks Katrina for your healing sessions. I've had a few now and I always leave feeling lighter and rejuvenated
Highly recommend.

Week 3

Heal the now

Release any trauma, blockages, any residue that is left in the 7 layers of the body. Cleanse the body with sage. Download upgrades and Re-code the energetic field..

Week 4

Intuitive coaching session

Some extremely hard stuff can come up. Living in scarcity, lack, victim mode. The sessions are hard truth that you have been avoiding. Some messages are very blunt. Are you ready to hear the hard truths? I cannot control what comes up for each client nor do I know what will come up as its extremely specific to you and your life.

Homework is given if needed.

“ I felt very light and relieve after the reiki session. Definitely help ease off on my stress and gave me more energy and focus on what truly matters. Highly recommend Katrina!
